autopsy by Dr. Hartigan disclosed the fact that death was occasioned by ancurism of the aorta. The deceased had evidently just performed his morning toilet, as a shaving brush, cup, and razor were found on the table near where he fell. There was a wound on the left temple, from which the blood was flowing, but this was caused by his striking against the corner of the table in his fall. Mr. Russell was a untive of Canada, but had resided in this city for many years. He was formerly a clerk in the office of the Washington gas light company, and while there studied law and graduated at the Columbia law school. During the existence of the board of public works, he was extensively engaged as a street contractor. He was also interested in some mining operations. In connection with Mr. Gerge Taylor, he has been engaged in prosecuting claims before the French-American claims commission. He married the only daughter of Columbus Alexander, the wedding taking place with great celat at St. Matthew's church, by whom he had three interesting children. On account of family difficulties he was divorced from his wife some time ago, but he retained a strong attachment for his children, and a large painting of them occupied a prominent position in the room in which he died. No Let Up by Judge Snell. Thomas W. Sutton, a colored oyster dealer, who was charged with having received shoes stolen by the boy Gauly from H. Walker stolen by the boy Gauly from H. Walker Tucker, of 1923 Pennsylvania avenue, the circumstances of the boy's extensive thievery having been already detailed in The Republican, was tried in the police court yesterday. The boy said that the defendant had tried to persuade him to state on the trial that he (Sutton) had paid him $2 for the shoes, whereas he only gave him seventy-five cents. The court imposed a fine of $50 or ninety days. Counsel for the defense said he this was pretty severe punishment. In anthis was pretty severe punishment. In an-swer to this remark from the attorney Judge Snell said: "We are having a perfect flood of discoveries in regard to cases of receivers of stolen goods and the like, and I am not going to let up on them easy," An appeal was noted.

Commissioners Morgan and Lydecker and Building Inspector Entwisle on Tuesday visited the new station-houses. They first visited the new one in the fifth precinct, on Twelfth street between C and D northwest, and found that the work had been done in an excellent manner, and reflected much credit upon the contractor. This station will be ready for occupancy by the first of January. The commissioners then visited the new first precinct, on E street between Four-and-a-half and Sixth streets southwest, which they found nearly completed and the work done stilefac-
